Dear Mr. Bachman:

Per NCAA Bylaw 30.15 (men) or 30.16 (women), the King James Summer Showcase at Waukegan Fieldhouse in Waukegan, Illinois, has been certified for the following date(s): July 9-11. NCAA Division I coaching staff members are permitted to attend your event and observe prospective student-athletes only on the designated date(s) of certification.

Note: Division I student-athletes with remaining eligibility are NOT permitted to participate in this event unless separate NCAA league certification is applied for and obtained (which would be acknowledged in a separate approval letter).

Activity operators are responsible for knowing and operating their events according to information posted on the Certified Basketball Events and Leagues Web site (<http://www.ncaa.org/wps/ncaa?ContentID=315>). You are encouraged to make yourself familiar with the online information as you will be held accountable to it.

An event review package with supporting documentation must be submitted online no later than October 11. Step-by-step directions on how to complete the online review form are available online.

The basketball certification staff will closely monitor and strictly enforce NCAA certification requirements. Failure to conduct your event in compliance with the applicable rules or core values of the NCAA will result in the denial of future certification. All deadlines are strictly enforced.

A complete list of activities certified by the NCAA is available on the Certified Basketball Events and Leagues Web site. If you have any questions, please contact the basketball certification staff at 317/917-6031.

Sincerely,

Sandy Parrott
Associate Director of Basketball Certification
