Mr. Aaron Bachman
412 Browning Street
East Canton, Ohio 44730

Dear Mr. Bachman:

Per NCAA 13.18 (men) and 13.19 (women), the King James Summer Showcase Chicago at Waukegan Fieldhouse in waukegan, Illinois, has been certified for the following date(s): July 9-11. NCAA Division I coaching staff members are permitted to attend your event and observe prospective student-athletes only on these designated date(s) of certification.

Note: Division I student-athletes with remaining eligibility are NOT permitted to participate in this event unless separate NCAA league certification is applied for and obtained (which would be acknowledged in a separate approval letter).

Activity operators are responsible for knowing and operating their events according to information posted on www.ncaa.org/basketballcertification. You are encouraged to make yourself familiar with the online information as you will be held accountable to it. The basketball certification staff will closely monitor and strictly enforce NCAA certification requirements. Failure to conduct your event in compliance with the applicable rules or core values of the NCAA will result in the denial of future certification.

An event review package with supporting documentation must be submitted online no later than October 11. All deadlines are strictly enforced. Step-by-step directions on how to complete the online review form are available online.

Because future certification depends on the accuracy of information collected at the event, you are encouraged to access the event review form in advance to make sure that you understand all that will be required in this submission. Once the event has concluded and an operator has lost the leverage of withholding a team/individual from participation, those individuals are less responsive/cooperative to submit the information required.

You are also encouraged to work ahead and enter as much of the information as you can prior to the event. This will expedite the process and make it easier on you to meet your deadline. However, DO NOT submit the review form before the event has concluded.

A complete list of activities certified by the NCAA is available on www.ncaa.org/basketballcertification. If you have any questions, please contact the basketball certification staff at 317/917-6031.

Sincerely,

Sandy Parrott
Associate Director of Basketball Certification
